Taking out? Place your order at the register & we will call your name to pick up when ready. If you called ahead, please proceed directly to the counter for assistance.

Dining in? After placing your order at the register, you'll receive a number. Please take a seat and display your number on the table. We will bring your dishes, refills, anything you need (that cookie in the bakery case that's been staring at you), then we clear your table when you're finished.

When there is a line, order first then take a seat. Please do not hold tables.

This helps to ensure that everyone has a table when their meals are ready.

Thank you!
